

AFADWU

Organise or Starve
Agricultural Food and Allied Democratic Workers Union

Reg No: LR 2/6/2/2705

Head Office
Johannesburg

For Immediate Release
10/10/2023

Members of AFADWU TO EMBARK ON A STRIKE

Members of The Agricultural Food And Allied Democratic Workers Union (AFADWU) to embark on a strike.

The strike deadlocked is on a wage dispute and subsequent to that went on strike from 05 October 2023 to date

Pioneer Foods Clayville is officially on strike from the 05th of October 2023, to date seeking for the employer to submit to their needs.

Pioneer Foods Clayville issues in dispute are as follows.

1. Salary dispute as workers were on 08% and the Employer was on 06% ATB
2. Equal pay for same-value job
3. medical aid is 100% subsidized by the employer for the whole family, the company is offering 50% for only the employees
4. Increase the bargaining scope
5. Policies that only apply to certain individuals
6. Position discretion because only certain individuals are allowed to act on positions
7. overtime is calculated at the admin rate

The night shift hasn't been allocated transportation

9. Leave days which are calculated at 1,5 for a single day taken

The strike is underway at unit5, Tile Crescent, Gauteng Industrial Estate, Gauteng Industrial Estate, Clayville,1666.

Issued by AFADWU

Provincial Organiser: Clement Zulu 082 674 16 75

Media Officer : Khayelihle Khumalo 078 9979728